

Blood of the Martyrs, Seed of the Church: Stories of Catholics Who Died for Their Faith

From the 1st century onwards, church history is spattered with the lifeblood of those who loved Jesus more than life itself. The details of their noble deaths are as varied as their lives. Arranged with the precision of a storyteller, each account shines like a luminous pearl. Encounter the faith of early believers such as John the Baptist, Stephen and Paul. Marvel at the courage of those killed by pagan kings and government officials. Travel alongside early missionaries, whose deaths inspires others to come to faith. Mourn the tragedy of Christians warring against other Christians. Finally, meet contemporary men and women whose lives were lived in service to Christ, and whose deaths are precious in his sight. This inspiring account should make your spirit soar.
