

You Will Be Alright (Forever and Ever #18)

Silke admits her feelings to herself even though she doesn't want to. She hates what Arsen did to her, but she hates the fact she still loves him more. It would be easy to stay with Pike, but there was no passion. What was her obsession with this ex-convict? Why couldn't she stay away? Roland and Jasmine hang out at a bar, and they talk about their own relationships. Jasmine insists Roland needs to come out and tell the truth. Heath doesn't deserve to be a dirty secret. Roland knows this is true but will that change anything? Reid is loving his time with Jasmine, and when they go out for a night of bowling, he thinks she might be the one. But her random indifference at the end of the night throws him off. Why does she always assume he wants to leave? Why does she always assume he's not interested? Is there something more she isn't sharing? Slade and Trinity prepare for their wedding, but they both have different ideas of what they want. Skye and Cayson help the planning but it usually leads to fights. Clementine finally agrees to come clean about her relationship to Ward but what will Cayson's reaction be? Sean goes home to his loving wife, but disaster strikes in the most unexpected way. What will happen to his family because of it?
